IVY CREEK NATURAL AREA COMMON BUTTERFLY IDENTIFICATION GUIDE

This guide is intended to serve as a quick field reference for identifying the most common butterflies found at Ivy Creek Natural Area. The characteristics listed are generalizations based on observation and may vary with individual butterflies. Accurately identifying species in flight requires quick observation of size, coloration, location and flight pattern.

LARGE $(3 \frac{1}{2}" - 5")$

Color Features and Characteristics Species Yellow Black stripes and tails. Very common. Eastern Tiger Swallowtail White Zebra Swallowtail Black stripes and tails. Strong flier. Tails. Green on hindwing. In/near wooded area. Pipevine Swallowtail Tails. Green on hindwing. In open sunny area. Spicebush Swallowtail (M) Black Tails. Blue on hindwing. Spicebush Swallowtail (F) Tails. Blue on hindwing. Faint black stripes on Eastern Tiger Swallowtail (F) underside of wings. (Dark Form)

Brownish Orange

Black stripes on wings. Often gliding. Silver spots on underside of wings. Speckled.

Angular wings. Often lands on side of tree.

Monarch Great Spangled Fritillary

Question Mark

MEDIUM (2 $\frac{1}{2}$ " – 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ ")

Color	Features and Characteristics	Species
Yellow	Bright yellowish-green. Often flies in a straight line.	Cloudless Sulphur
Black	Greenish blue hindwing. Glides near woods' edge Tails. Yellow wing border. Yellowish-beige wing border. Often sunning.	Red-Spotted Purple Black Swallowtail Mourning Cloak
Brownish Orange	Speckled. Flies low to ground in sunny areas. Stripes on wings. Resembles monarch, but smaller.	Variegated Fritillary Viceroy

IVY CREEK NATURAL AREA COMMON BUTTERFLY IDENTIFICATION GUIDE

SMALL $(1 \frac{1}{2}" - 2 \frac{1}{2}")$

Color Features and Characteristics

Species

Yellow

Black border on wings. Flies in open sunny areas.

Clouded Sulphur

Orange

Black border on wings. Flies in open sunny areas.

Orange Sulphur

Cabbage Butterfly

White

Mostly white. Small black area on tip of forewing. Orange patch on tip of forewing. Fairly slow. Black border on wings. Hindwings may be dark.

Falcate Orange Tip Clouded or Orange Sulphur (F)

(White Form)

Black

Orange-red stripe on wing. Lands on side of tree.

Red Admiral

Brownish Orange

Blue eyespots. Flies low to the ground. Angular wings. Similar/darker than Question Mark. Lightly speckled. Around bushes near open area. Black and white on tips of forewing. Sunny areas. Speckled with black and a little white. Woods' edge Buckeye Comma

Tawny Emperor Common Snout Painted Lady or

American Painted Lady

Dark Brown Yellow spot on forewing. Low around trees/bushes. White speckled. Mid-level by bushes near open area. Silvery white spot on underside of forewing. Sunny.

Common Wood Nymph Hackberry Butterfly Silver Spotted Skipper

Light Brown Low around brush/trees

Little Wood Satyr

VERY SMALL ($\frac{1}{2}$ " – 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ")

Color Features and Characteristics

Species

Yellow

Black on edge of wings. Sunny open area.

Little Sulphur

Brownish Orange

Speckled with black. Very common.

Silvery Checkerspot Pearl Crescent

Orange

Appears to be skipping in flight. Common.

Sachem, Fiery Skipper

Least Skipper

Brown/ Black

Appears to be skipping in flight.

Northern/Southern Cloudy Wing Appears in early spring Sleepy Dusky Wing

Roadside Skipper

Purple/ Blue

Rubs tiny tails together at rest. Very common. No tails. Brighter blue than Eastern Tailed.

Eastern Tailed Blue (M) Spring Azure (Common Blue)

Silvery Blue

Dark topside of wings. Rubs tiny tails together. Dark topside of wings. Longer tails than Blue

Eastern Tailed Blue (F) Common Hairstreak